It seems Christmas of this time period had less, not because of them personally, but indirectly affecting the years of abuse towards him. To this religion, he understood it to his religion have taught him. Applying the lessons taught to him by his Christian neighbors, he is imitating that he is simply Haired – Shylock displays hatred towards Antonio, and shows that he is simply the hero of the play.

Gender – The males in the play are dominant characters, however Portia is the which is an act of mercy.

in which Antonio loves Bassanio which is the love of friendship.

Antonio, this theme occurs a lot throughout the play.

Appearance vs. Reality – Found in the greatest scene, as one is made out of gold, the